SPECIAL ELECTION IN DENVER

TO VOTE ON CHARTER CHANGE
ORDERED BY INSTRUCT JUDGE

OUTCOME OF REFUSAL OF CITY COUNCIL AND MAYOR TO OR DER ELECTION ON COMMISSION
FORM

DENVER, Dec. 23.—Judge Steller of the district court this morning issued a writ of mandamus compelling Mayor Speer, the city council and all other city officers concerned to order a special city election to vote on the proposed amendment to the charter providing for a commissioner form of government.

This is the outcome of the refusal of the city officer to order a special election on the alleged political grounds. The city attorney's office immediately gave notice of an appeal to the supreme court.

MUCH INTEREST BEING SHOWN IN COMING FOOT BALL GAME
Much interest has been aroused in the coming foot ball game between teams representing the Halifax Rifles and Daytona at large, all the more so because of the fact that it will be the first gridiron struggle ever staged in Daytona. Anything that will amuse those conjouring here for the winter deserves to be boosted, especially anything in the line of athletics.

o'clock and it is hoped a good crowd will be present. Should the Christmas game be a success other contests of the kind will be attempted between the two teams, one probably on New Year's day, and later in the winter it may become possible by combining the best material of the two teams to arrange games

Christmas will be played as near like a collegiate game as possible and the field of play is being put in shape now and marked off for the encounter. The two teams will probably line up as follows:

RIFLES—Brown, r. e.; Conrad, e.; Hamilton, r. t.; Ballough, l. t.; F. Bradshaw, r. g.; Howard, l. g.

S. Braudshaw, c.; track, q. s.
 Thompson, r. h. (Capt.); Boseley
 l. h.; Cowan, f. b.
 DAYTONA—Wilder, l. e.; Daw
 e.; Drake, l. t.; Drake or Foot
 t.; Munroe, l. g.; Strother or Zu ber, l. g.; Drake or McDonald, c.

CANNIBALS WHO CHEW GUM
Traveler Finds the Seris Kindly and Affectionate and Quite Without Deadly Weapons.
Though it seems rather a pity to shatter romantic illusions and myths in a world from which romance (of that kind, anyway) is fading rapidly, yet it must be said that there are only two old, useless rifles in the hands of the tribe, and at the time of our visit only two bows and a couple of quivers full of arrows, not one of which was headed. And now they haven't those,
for we bought them for souvenirs.
Among themselves, at any rate, however they may have behaved to strangers in the past, the Seris were as kindly and even affectionate a lot of people as I have ever had the good fortune to encounter. Never did we see a mother or father slap a child.
Never was anger displayed or irritation. They were continually sharing with each other the little gifts we made them. Really, you know, when you see a group of alleged cannibals sharing chewing-gum (the first they had ever tasted) from mouth to mouth and enjoying themselves hugely, respect for travelers' tales of blood and thunder goes down a peg or two.—
Michael Williams in Outing.

THE OLD-FASHIONED FATHER.
Do you remember the old-fashioned father who always used to ask his daughter's sweetheart to fill in at a card game?
Justifies Nursery Rhyme.
The school children of Germany are taught to swim without the use of water and thus does an old nursery rhyme secure justification.

THE RIDGEWOOD
The first crew of servants, heads of departments and helpers 26 in number, for the Ridgewood this season arrived yesterday afternoon.
This crew being just one of three that will be necessary to manage the affairs of the big hotel this winter.
Besides 75 brought from the north some colored help will be engaged here. Manager E. P. Woodbury expects another crew in a week, the third to follow just another week later to be here just in time for the opening January 1. On New Year's day at noon the first meal
will be served and the large force of men on hand is rushing work in order that all may be ready a day or two ahead of the opening. About all that remains now to be done is a little work by the plumbers.
This season at the Ridgewood a number of the various department heads will be known to local people for having been here for a number of seasons, but quite a number of new faces will be seen as well.
R. C. Taylor, head clerk for a number of seasons, will be behind the desk again, while Mrs. Taylor will again be housekeeper. Dan Reagan, who has been head porter so long,
is already in the city and will again
have charge of that department.
Miss Ella M. Hughes of Woodmont, Conn., past three seasons pianist and entertainer, has been in the city for several weeks and yesterday afternoon the Misses Jordan of Burlington, Vt., where Col. Woodbury's summer hotel is located, arrived to assist Miss Hughes and form the orchestra. The Misses Jordan play the violin and cello. F. R. Fenwick of the Marshall house, York Harbor,
will be the head steward, and Manager Woodbury has been fortunate to secure H. W. Johnson of the well known Briarcliff Lodge on the Hudson for head chef. George Thome of Boston, will have charge of the tonorial department, and Miss May of New York, of the ladies' hair dressing and manicure departments,
both new features at the Ridgewood.
Col. Woodbury yesterday afternoon met his wife and two children, Ella P. and Murray C., who arrived from Burlington, after having been delayed nearly 24 hours because of an engine being derailed on the Atlantic Coast Line.

THE PRINCE GEORGE.
Men were engaged along Beach street this morning installing the flaring arc lights at intervals, the locations of the lights being the same as last winter.
Recent arrivals at the Prince George are Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Oliver and family, Pittsburg, season guests;
Chas. J. Herog, New York; Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Blakesley, Mrs. R. H.
Downs, Miss E. D. Downs, R. E.

sonville.
George Blakesley, a friend of Messrs. Hilyard and Holroyd, proprietors of the Prince George hotel, arrived Thursday afternoon, accompanied by his family, and will spend some time at that hotel. Mr. Blakesley is from Jersey City, N. J., and is in the automobile business, being probably the largest dealer in Cadil-lacs in the country. Mr. Blakesley and family stopped at Jacksonville and other points enroute and came here from Deland, but prefers Daytona to any place they have seen and Mr. Blakesley says he intends in the future to spend the winter season in this city.

The Comfortable and Economical of

ELECTRICITY

are not fully appreciated by many people. We have to thank many inventors for the light, heat, and power, and for the fact that we can now use electricity in so many ways. It is the most useful and powerful of all the forces of nature, and it is the only one that we can control. It is the only one that we can use in so many ways, and it is the only one that we can use in so many ways.

The city of Daytona will be "closed" for the next two days, Monday being Christmas.

*Christmas cigars at Vet Cave's.

The yacht "Elmyre," Capt. W. F. Ayres, owner, took a party of 15 to Ponce Park today for a fish fry.

*See our new line of house coats. Anthony Brothers.

Mrs. E. T. Conrad entertained a few friends at afternoon tea at her home on Orange avenue, yesterday afternoon.

*Picture made any shape — Have them out at LeSene's.

J. L. Robinson expects to drive over to Seville tomorrow in his automobile, accompanied by his wife and baby, to spend Christmas at that place, returning the evening of that day.

*Get your Christmas turkey from the Red Star meat market. Phone 182 Red, Daytona Beach. 17-4t

Dr. R. T. Bishop and M. L. O'Brien came up from Merritt's island by train Thursday afternoon to spend Christmas, as usual, at the Prince George hotel with Messrs. Hilyard and Holroyd and their families.

*Order Arcade ice cream for your Christmas dinner — rich and delicious. Phone 2243 rings.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Merrill, who left Thursday for the south, went to West Palm Beach instead of Orlando, as was at first their intention. They will probably return to Daytona later in the season.

*An exclusive line of Van Dyke Christmas letters and booklets at Gardner's Art Shop. 19-2t

Rube Marsh discovered a couple of deer feeding in a field on his place on the DeLand road last Tuesday and sent word to John L. Roberts, who at once responded to the call, taking with him his hounds and within two hours Mr. Marsh had both deer, a doe and a yearling.

*You can get your blank books for 1912 at the Otis book store. 18-6

The Southern Express company will not only deliver Christmas packages tomorrow, but the office will be kept open, so that parcels may be had by calling for them. The delivery will be made only to residences, however, and not to the business houses.

*Picture Frames — Have them made at LeSene's.

C. B. Shouse has rented the Dr. Courtney house at the corner of Ridgewood and Magnolia avenues and will occupy it about the first of January with his wife and her mother, Mrs. Jacob VanBuren. Mr. and Mrs. Shouse and Mrs. VanBuren have been occupying the Florida residence at Daytona Beach during the summer, but were in this city last winter.

*Christmas cigars at Vet Cave's

*1912 Diaries at the Otis book store. 18-6t

Christian Science services are held every Sunday morning at the Palmto Club house, Orange avenue. Wednesday evenings testimonial meeting at 8 o'clock.

*LAST DAY AND NIGHT OF XMAS SALES — A BIG REDUCTION ON ALL DOLLS AT GEO. H. CLARK'S STORE.

Although every indication points to the fact there are more people in Daytona at this time than there ever has been at this season of the year, the records of the postoffice show that Uncle Sam did a lighter Christmas business here this year than he has done in previous seasons.

*The Eastman kodak line at Gardner's Art Shop. 19-1t

W. E. Blodgett entertained a party of gentlemen on a trip to the hotel, Tuesday, aboard his cruising boat, Swastika, the party including W. H. Weld, H. E. Pence and John D. Osborn, of Minneapolis, Minn.; W. G. Zick, of New York, and C. C. Hooper, of Kansas City. An excellent repast was enjoyed aboard the boat and at the hotel a porpoise 10 feet or more in length was harpooned and engaged the party for two hours before it was secured.

*Folding umbrellas, just the thing for Christmas presents, at Anthony Brothers.

Friends in this city of J. H. Prosen received invitations to attend the opening of the Cortelyou cafe, corner of Flatbush avenue and Cortelyou road, Brooklyn, N. Y., Friday, Dec. 22, of which Mr. Prosen is proprietor. Mr. Prosen, who is well known here, was burned out in the hotel business in the big fire of a year ago at Coney Island and lost practically everything he had and his friends in this city will wish him all possible success in his present venture.

*For sale, furnished, the Robertson cottage, two doors south of Ridgewood hotel. See J. D. Robertson, Ivy Lane Inn. 19-4t Moth Balls in the Orient.

"You will find strange names for ordinary things in the Far East," said an American who has recently been in those parts.
"When I struck Singapore I had a lot of heavy clothes with me which had been necessary on a journey across Siberia. I decided to put them away in a trunk, but thought I would get some moth balls from a drug store."
"Moth balls" repeated the chemist in his eyes, "you mean aphthalated marbles."
"Why, yes; those things that you put in clothes to keep moths out," I explained.
"Oh," he said, intelligence showing in his eyes, "you mean aphthalated marbles."
STILL HAVE FEW DICTIONARIES AND SHEARS FOR SUBSCRIBERS
WILL BE GIVEN TO SUBSCRIBERS OF THE GAZETTE-NEWS AS LONG AS THE LIMITED SUPPLY HOLDS OUT.
The Gazette-News still has a few of those handsome, profusely illustrated, full limp leather bound dictionaries to be given away with subscriptions to the weekly paper, and a few pairs of shears, which are also being given as premiums for subscribers who desire to pay for the paper in advance.
Many subscribers to the Gazette-News have taken advantage of this offer and the supply is being rapidly exhausted, but the offer holds good as long as the supply lasts. Only a limited number of the shears and dictionaries were secured in the first place, but the conditions of the offer hold good until the supply is gone.
The profusely illustrated dictionary of 632 pages is bound in full limp leather, flexible, stamped in gold on back and sides, printed on Bible paper, with red edges and corners rounded; thumb index; beautiful, strong and durable. The dictionary is self-pronouncing, containing the latest literary, scientific, encyclopedic and pronouncing features based on the latest and best authors. It also contains a concise history of the English language, foreign words and phrases, abbreviations used in writing and printing, rules of punctuation, business and letter writing forms, table of weights and measures, statistics of all the states, Christian names of men and women, rules of order, postage and postage rates with meanings, parliamentary regulations, patent and copyright laws, etc., comprising hundreds of everyday help. In addition it contains the latest census and beautifully colored maps of all the principal geographical divisions of the world. These dictionaries ordinarily retail for $4.00.
A pair of shears is given to every person paying one year in advance; or A dictionary goes with one year's subscription and a bonus of 75 cents additional; or A dictionary goes with two years' subscription and 50 cents additional; or A dictionary goes with three years' subscription without any bonus; or A dictionary will be given upon presentation of the coupon printed in the Gazette-News and 98 cents bonus; or
A dictionary will be given free to any school student who secures four new subscribers to the Gazette-News, and each of the subscribers will get a pair of Eureka shears.
The postage on the dictionary is 20 cents if you desire it sent by mail. Postage on the shears is six cents.

Lessons in Etiquette.
Those who have dined in restaurants or hotels habitually will find that they have fallen into many unpleasant little ways, permissible possibly toward a landlord, but not toward a hostess. They feel that they have the privilege both to criticize openly and to imply criticism either of the food itself or of the way in which it is served. Women who cherish the ambition of making poor, forlorn habits of hotels happy with "home cooking" have their hopes dashed by this ungracious habit. Let those, too, who have fallen into the habit of dipping a spoon or fork into a glass of water and then wiping it on a napkin before using it beware of those moments when they become deeply absorbed in conversation at the house of a friend or even at the home table. Could any habit be more insulting to a hostess?—Harper's Bazar.
